Look at it this way.
Look at it this way...it's all attitude. Everything you do depends on your attitude... How you think, how you act, what you do. Whether good or bad, everyone has one.

How are you with your friends? ATTITUDE. How do you react to your teachers? ATTITUDE. Do you have school spirit? ATTITUDE. What about your parents? ATTITUDE. What are your feelings about relationships? ATTITUDE.

We all have some kind of an attitude. In fact attitudes usually change on a daily basis. The weekend was really awesome...but you forgot about your English paper. You were picked Student-of-the-Month. You're feeling sick...but your friends cheered you up. She didn't go to the game with you. You lost your lunch money...but that special someone shared their lunch with you. You lost your project. The morning was awful...but then you aced your biology test. He bought you flowers. You got accepted to the college of your dreams. Hanging out with your friends. Cheering for the panthers. Enjoying high school. What could be better? A LOT. Because it's all about what you see and do. IT'S ALL ABOUT ATTITUDE. IT'S ALL ABOUT YOU. LOOK AT IT THIS WAY...

Seniors look at high school in a different way than most underclassmen.

Jason Grant, Ron Rucker, Latina Taylor, Tanya Robinson, Maria Barker and Kenya Smith looking forward to having a lot of enjoyment at a football rally.

Yolonda Johnson, Nikki Greer, Daleah Williams and Carmen Strickland look as if they are enjoying their lunch.

Shenise Johnson and Lakesha Buggs are looking forward to another year at Euclid.

New Euclid principal, Mr. Robert Knuth, looks at the high school differently now that he is no longer just at the Board building. Alison Stahre is looking forward to cheering for the football team. Athletic Director, Mr. Spencer Kane was also looking for a win on the football field.
Janet Fonovic and Kathy Copie look at all the neat ways that a TI-82 graphing calculator can be used to help them in their calculus and physics classes.

Will Buchannon looked the ball into his hands and made this reception over the back of the North defender and took it into the end zone for a touchdown.

When it comes to looks, the cheerleaders give a lot of them. Here are Wendy Lapuh, Gina Zeman, Meghan Orazen, Kim Petrik, Melanie Shipitka, Gina Phillips, Laura Filolt, Christina Fabert, Shona Mc Cune and Kristina Geiger posing for the camera.

Meigen Geirich, Valery Polis, Nikki Genovese, Dana Finotti, Julie Darar, Margy Mihalic and Jaina Blackford look forward to an exciting year.

Stacie Glavan, Amy Guy and Meredith Bell look to the cafeteria to nourish their needs.

The football team looks to Beth Kramer, Hannah Davis, Katie Baloni and Erin Vincenti as a source of help and encouragement.

Jeff Morris and Mike Banach are looking forward to their meal while Mike Hoffman and Greg Peseck aren't looking forward to anything at the moment.

Students at Euclid High School had the opportunity to enjoy a variety of activities. During the school day, students attended classes that were conducted by our excellent faculty. After school, many participated in extracurricular activities such as clubs, sports and other organizations which added to the excitement of high school life. Life at Euclid High School was a rewarding experience for most students.

Margaret Corcoran, Alison Stahre, Kelly Gavin and Maureen Pavlic had a lot to do during school since they were cheerleaders.

Angela Miklavcic and Marianne Wilson would go to great lengths to get the most out of their school day.
Tanya Robinson, Shenise Johnson, Maria Barker, Lakesha Buggs and Manicka Collins know that they will have lots of fun at a football rally.

Pam Jordan, Jessica Hopkins, Chris Kletecka and Matt Ortman know that the library is an important place in which to get work done during school.

Carrie Sharp and Karen Gezann get a chance to lead the Marching Band during the half-time ceremonies. This is only one of the many activities that both girls participate in at Euclid.

Amy Repko and Paula Sustarsic are active in many organizations in the school and have an active school life.

Leah Walczak enjoys the satisfaction she gets from playing tennis for the high school team.
Cheerleaders, Rashanda Lockett, Christina Fabert, Melanie Shippitka and Gina Phillips show off the sign that they helped make for the Euclid-Villa Angela/St. Joe game.

Students cheering at the rally before the Euclid-North game.

Dani Picard, Karen Toussner and Kim Clark are trying to make the best of their school year by working in the Library on their assignments.

Lauren Arnold really works hard as a cheerleader and finds it to be a rewarding part of her high school life.
Flag Corps members, Chris Puglia, Amy Barber, Maureen Porcen and Heather Mulhall, enjoy life at Euclid by participating in our half-time ceremonies.

Monroe Hillsman takes off for a long gain on the JV Football team.

Liz Buchner knows that academics is an important part of her high school experience and takes Advanced Placement chemistry to help her in college.

Senior soccer team member, Gina Zeman, shows great concentration as she dribbles the ball down the field. Soccer is only one of the many activities Gina fills her life with at Euclid High School.

Jamie Willett enjoys playing sports on Euclid's teams. He is a wide receiver for the varsity football team.
Jodi Dominick and Emily Bode were cheering for the Panthers at the rally while Maureen Porcen, Heather Mulhall, Marissa Mukavetz and Lorrie Melton were dancing with the Flag Corps. The football team sat together in the stands and were introduced during the rally.

Nicole Jackson and Matrika Johnson are involved with the Marching Band and are learning a lot about life at Euclid High School. A new program that was begun this year was NJROTC in which the students participate in military exercises and are prepared for entrance into the armed forces. In this way they can get money for college and get a commission upon graduation. Here they are shown drilling during one of their classes.

The State ranked Euclid Panther Football team danced their way to a Homecoming victory by mutilating the Maple Heights Mustangs 58-12 on Friday October 8. It was a beautiful night as fireworks sparked through the air along with the mighty Panthers. Euclid gained 526 yards to Maple's 216. Euclid cruised to a 12-0 in the first quarter on Steve Duncan's 63 yard score and De Juan Goulde's diving catch for a 20 yard touchdown pass from Darnea McKinney. B. J. Harrison was credited with two dancing touchdowns of 9 and 56 yards. Monroe Hillsman and Carlos Prince rounded out the scoring. Mike Heramb and Andy Eminger both handled the kick offs and extra points.

Pregame festivities included "Blue and Gold" Day and "Hippy Day" along with faces painted in the cafeteria. On Thursday evening an awesome bonfire, the first one in many years, was held on Diamond #4. The band played their instruments and the fans cheered. It was an exciting beginning to an exciting weekend.

Royal Gala" was the 1994 theme for the Homecoming Dance. Blue, Maroon and cream completed the E-room atmosphere. As the dance began couples strolled through the door and were transported into Medieval times. They proceeded onto the dance where they passed Knights, Dragons and a Dungeon. Their pictures were taken on a drawbridge in front of a castle. Two hundred twenty-four couples danced the night away. Midway through the evening the Homecoming Court was announced. Gina Zeman was crowned Queen and Ben Mooney was King. The senior female attendants included Maria Barker, Melissa Beverly, Wendy Lapuh, Melanie Shippitka, Paula Sustarsic and Aisha Tillman. The male attendants were Kyle Bush, Gary Dwyer, Kevin Gorman, Chris Kietecka, Rich Slade and Mike Swyt. The Junior Jester was Lakisha Phillips and the Sophomore Jester was La'Keya McCauley. It was a night to remember for everyone involved.

Every student has one. Some had more than one. It was a locker of course. A locker was a place where students could keep all their belongings while they were at school. For some it was just a place that they would throw their possessions in, but for others it was their home away from home and it was a place to show off to others in the school and so they decorated their lockers to suit their personalities. Some of the creative talents are shown on these pages.

Mandy Siplock shows off her locker which has many pictures of her family and friends in it.

Beth Walters' locker has pictures of family and friends and a lot of art work and commercial pictures.

Kisha Jones' locker, on the other hand, doesn't have pictures but does have a lot of drawings and cartoons.

Megan Miezin's locker has a combination of pictures, artwork and slogans that she uses to help her get through the day.
Lakesha Buggs, Shenise Johnson, and Manicka Collins find that meeting by their lockers is a good time to socialize.

Joi Hutton shows her appreciation for Flag Corps and Disney movies.

Robin Lausche decorates her locker with Ziggy, Disney characters and pictures of her friends.

Sarah Kale meets at Rachel Zielinski’s locker before the school day begins.

Stacia Ketchum likes to ‘bear’ with her teddies.

Sharon Hollis, Kristina Geiger, and Christina Fabert reveal that many surprising things can be found in Euclid’s lockers.

Kendra Proctor displays her fondness for Gary Larson’s Far Side.

Shannon Clark’s locker depicts her interest in Flag Corps, while Beth Weinbrecht wraps her locker in Muppet Baby paper.
Most of Euclid's seniors have a job outside school

Having a job was an important part in the life of most high school students. By the time they became a senior most students had a job. In a poll taken it was shown that 75.8% of the seniors had a job. This was very similar to the results of last year's poll in which 81% of the seniors said they had a job. Most of the students work between 11 and 30 hours each week. A few worked more than 40 hours every week and a couple even had more than one job outside school.

The money that the students earned was used to support their cars, buy clothes and other durable goods and supply the students with a means of entertainment. Some of the money also went into the bank to help them with college costs.

GOT A JOB

Jobs
About 130 couples danced the night away at the annual Winterfest ball which was held from 7:00 -11:00 p.m. on Saturday, February 11, 1995. "Frozen in Time" was the theme and the E-Room was decorated with snowflakes and ice. The colors were blue, silver and white making the atmosphere feel chilly. Cindy Ciulla and Rafael Brown were at the head of the court as Winterfest Queen and King. First King and Queen attendants were Olen Steelman and Beth Blatnik. Second attendants were Mike Hoffman and Shenise Johnson. Mike Zivnoska was Jack Frost, the Court Jester. The dances were great and every song under the sun was played. Winterfest was sponsored by Student Council and everyone enjoyed themselves in a situation that was Frozen in Time.

Almost every sport you want to play is at Euclid. Whether you want it to be your ticket to college or just something to do everyday after school, at Euclid there is a sport for you. It has sports for all levels: Varsity for the experienced; Freshmen for the first time players, and JV for everyone in between. Sports here gives you the opportunity to be part of a team and meet many new friends.

Running game. Those were the two words that summed up the 1994-95 #15 in the Nation (U.S.A.Todays) and #1 in the state (A.P.) Euclid Panther offense. This from a team that was picked by the coaches at the beginning of the season to finish third in the G.C.C. It didn’t have the super runners and players of previous years. It didn’t have the depth. All it had was a bunch of kids that went out every Friday evening and outplayed all of their opponents. Out of the total 5,477 offensive yards that the panthers gained, B.J. Harrison had 1,448 yards and scored 15 touchdowns. The few times Darnea McKinney did put the ball in the air, receivers like Gary Dwyer, Jamie Willett, Pete Thomas, De Juan Goulde and Simeon Boddie were there to catch it. Darnea threw for 729 yards. Helping to gain yards was power fullback Steve Duncan and the great offensive line among whom were Olen Steelman (All G.C.C., All News Herald, All Northeast Ohio), and Steve Pae (All G.C.C., All News Herald). The defense was not unseen. Gary Dwyer had 4 interceptions, Pete Thomas and Bryant Clark had 3. The front line, let by Shawn Leben and Antoine Kemp held opposing teams to a total of 1093 yards rushing and De Juan Goulde had a team record in sacks with Tim Rutti putting on the pressure from the other end.

As this team became the 4th undefeated group in school history, they also became the first Euclid team to be ranked nationally and first in the state. Even though falling short in the playoffs against Strongsville, the 1994 Euclid Football team went beyond all expectations and will always be remembered as "The team that could".

New coach but wrestlers still struggling

TAKING IT TO THE MAT

Under the new coaching of Chris Papouras and Craig Petty, the 1994-94 wrestling team still fell short and turned out a disappointing season. The team consisted of many new wrestlers along with seniors Josh Holland (135#), DeMarco Miller (152#), Shawn Leben (215#) and B.J. Harrison (189#). The leadership of the team was shown by Harrison and Junior, Joe Tucceri (145#), whose records reflect many hours of practice that paid off. Dedicated wrestlers will be needed for the upcoming years in order to improve their record. Juniors, Tucceri, Nick Pfahl (140#) and Nate Davis (103#) should help to make next year more fruitful.

The 1994 Boy's Varsity Soccer Team got off to a slow start since they were short of coaches for the ninth grade team. Because of this they were only able to manage a 5-8-3 overall record and finished in a fourth place tie in the G.C.C. They fought many close games that were decided by only a few goals. Standouts for the club were seniors, Chris Kletecka, Rich Slade and Greg Pesek. Dan Corleto, Eric Heiss and Mike Heramb were juniors that contributed much offensively. Seniors, Kevin Gady, Kevin Gray, Brad Snell, Mike Swyt and Tom Walker also helped out significantly.

The 1994 Girl's Varsity Soccer team finished the season with an 8-7-1 overall record and ended up in third place in the G.C.C. with a 6-3-1 record. This was very similar to last year's. The team had many important players in all classes so they should be in a good position for future years. Leading scorers were Jennifer Waina, Jaina Blackford and Nancy Pekol. Leading stealers were Katie Walker, Heather Nickell, Ali Kucinski and Dana Finotti. Sandy Brown and Laura Fifolt were co-captains for the squad. There was so much interest in girl's soccer that Euclid even added a J.V. team. They finished the season with a 7-7 record.

The 1994-95 Panther Hockey team began the season right, taking second place at the Thanksgiving tournament. They played Olmstead Falls Nov. 25 and won 7-6, after one regular overtime and a sudden death overtime. They then continued, beating Garfield and losing a tough one to North Olmstead.

The team was led this year by senior co-captains, Ben Mooney and Tony Verch. High scorers included Verch and Matt Carroll. In goal, Raymond Miller started and freshman Geoffrey Zevnik was a great backup, saving over 25 shots in one game.

Keys to defense were captain Ben Mooney and junior Vince Lombardo and sophomore Doug Zeman. The team suffered because of a large number of varsity players who graduated last year. The future looks promising as the young team becomes more dangerous next year.

The 1994 Varsity Volleyball team consisted of 10 juniors and one senior. There was a lot of talent but a real lack of varsity experience. There was only one returning letterman from the previous year's squad and the majority of the other girls were coming up from the junior varsity. It was a year for great improvement and was an excellent learning experience for the juniors. They finished the season with a solid record of 9-12, and with 10 returning players for next year, they could have an unbeatable season.

SEASON RECORD WON 9 LOST 9
G.C.C. RECORD WON 4 LOST 6

Although losing many players, the Varsity Panthers kept their poise. With the dazzling dunks from Melvin Levett, and the supreme shot blocking of Larry Taylor, the Panthers pounded their opponents. The Panthers traveled to Stow and upset the Bulldogs. They had a strong beginning but had a tough middle when they lost a couple of key players when their parents were not pleased with their grades. They returned at the end of the season and helped to make a strong finish. They were not able to keep up with Nordonia but they had a lot of exciting games.

The Junior Varsity team had a successful season under the direction of coach, Dennis Turkall and were able to pull off many clutch victories. The freshman team, on the other hand, totally dominated their competition and finished the season with a 17-2 overall record and 14-0 in the G.C.C. despite losing key players to the varsity and J.V teams.

Girl's basketball increased expectations as season developed showing some improvement.

This year's Lady Panthers discovered the true meaning of the word TEAM. When they worked together, they were almost unstoppable. They proved that by winning 7 of their 10 second half games. After an unfortunate injury to one of their co-captains, everyone stepped up to fill her shoes by putting in extra time after practice. Coach Pignatelli and Coach Haluska were very impressed with the togetherness Euclid found and they should be ready for an excellent 1995-96 season. The Lady Panthers planned on practicing together during the off-season so that next year with eleven returning players, they should be the team to beat.

Tennis showed slight improvement over previous year

The 1994 Varsity Girl’s Tennis Team once again attempted to fulfill Coach Pete Swope’s motto of the 3 C’s: Control, Command and Confidence, but only placed fourth in the G.C.C. The girls played well, and although the record doesn’t show it, lost many tough 3-set matches, and had team scores of 2-3. Leading the squad were senior co-captains Janeen Miklowski and Leah Walczak (Most Valuable Players) at first doubles, who held one of their own best personal records. Returning underclassmen included sophomore Maryann Oroz at first singles, Cathy Gibbons and Jennifer Hrovat alternating at singles’ positions, and the dynamic duo of Angela Meros and Kristina Geiger at second doubles. With Meros, Geiger, Oroz, Gibbons, and Hrovat returning, next year’s team should continue to improve, while Mr. Warman’s J.V. team will also improve.

SEASON RECORD WON 7 LOST 6

Janeen Miklowski getting in an overhand shot while Jennifer McCreight watches the ball after she hits it.
The Panther golf team finished with a 10-6-1 overall record which gave them a fourth place finish in the G.C.C. and was a vast improvement over the 5-7 record that they posted the previous year. Sophomore Bud White had a strong season by finishing first in the G.C.C. tournament, averaging 40 shots per match, and being selected to the all G.C.C. team. Another sophomore, Adam Ayer averaged 42 shots and had a fine season. Senior Aaron Boyce and Junior Joe Boje played great as they battled for the #2 spot all year. Team leadership was found in Jim Nero who was captain of the players. Jay Kletecka, Tim Fogarty and Kevin Evans were other golfers who earned letters for their fine year's work.

With the team losing only 2 seniors, they will be looking for even more improvement next year.

SEASON RECORD WON 10 LOST 6 TIE 1
G.C.C. RECORD WON 10 LOST 3 TIE 1
The 1994-95 Boy's Swim Team had an outstanding season. Led by Coach Joe Rodriguez, they repeated as G.C.C. Champions for the first time since 1982. Co-Captains, Kyle Bush and Jim Belanich helped guide the team to an overall record of 7-5 and a G.C.C. record of 3-1. The backbone of the team consisted of seniors Mike Swyt, Kyle Bush and Jim Belanich and sophomores Rich Belanich, Scott Simmons, Todd Lapp, and Jim Coleman. Help was provided by underclassmen Pauko-Obeng, Jason Waina, Chris Slagle, Bryan Scheider, Mike Reilly and Martin Tomsic, many of whom made vast improvements over the course of the season. Also helping the team were divers Chris Molakakis, Fritz Streiff and Dan Nainiger.

Girls swim to a perfect 12-0 record

The 1994-95 Lady Panther Swim Team reclaimed the Greater Cleveland Conference title by going undefeated during the regular season and then taking first place in the G.C.C. meet. Mrs. Joan Bush, who has been the girls' coach for the past four years, did an excellent job of motivating the girls to do their best at every meet. The lady panthers had depth, talent and worked very well together which were some of the reasons for the team’s success. The many underclassmen should insure that the team will do well in future years.

-Mary Wolf

Mary Wolf
The boy’s cross country team didn’t do quite as well as they did the previous year. This year they lost one meet whereas last year they were undefeated. Their only problem was with North who beat them both in the dual meet and at the conference meet. The Panthers partially made up for it by defeating them at the District and Regional meets. The leading times were run by Senior Ken Schuster, (All G.C.C., District, News-Herald, Regional and 42nd in the state). Junior, Tim Carney, (All G.C.C., District) was another important member of the team. Sophomores, Paul Glowacki, Adam Hines and Derek Stanic all made 2nd Team All G.C.C. With only one senior graduating there should be a good beginning for the next year.
On July 5, the first day of Cross Country practice, Coach Dick York didn't know what to expect of the season. The team lost no members to graduation and returning were lettermen senior Kari Wallette, and juniors Mary Dacar, Kathleen Graham, Margaret Good, Marie Salupo and Jamie Smialek. Sophomore Carolyn Gudaitis also rejoined, along with freshmen Becca Borchert, Erin Kilkenny and Jill Smialek. The girls worked very hard to earn their 5-4 record which gave them fourth place in the G.C.C. and an improvement over last year's season. Although they didn't make it out of Districts, they ran their best and should provide a strong team for future years.

The Indoor Track team was again very successful. With the cross-country team coming off one of their best seasons, the distance runners did a lot to help in the scoring. Many young, talented sprinters like Lamonte Foster and Deleonte Brown worked together with hurdler, Co-captain, Bryant Clark and 1/2 miler, Co-captain, Jamie Willett made it a great season. Two distance runners that led the team were Tim Carney and Ken Schuster. The girls, led by Co-captain Roschell Ashley accomplished much in the sprint events with Kisha Phillips and others.

Cheerleaders add spirit to football and basketball

The 1994-95 Panther cheerleaders had an excellent year. They started off at Akron summer camp where they made many new friends and earned several awards. They were awarded a third place trophy for their homemade dance routine, a superior plaque for the entire week, and the most spirited squad award. This prestigious award came with an automatic bid to the national competition in Walt Disney World, Florida. This was an excellent accomplishment for the cheerleaders because no Euclid squad had ever been able to qualify for such an event.

After camp and summer were over, football season arrived and the girls were able to cheer their team on and watch them become Division I champs once again.

The team’s adviser was Mrs. Bonnie Smith and was led by captains Gina Zeman, Wendy Lapuh, Melanie Shippitka, and Laura Fifolt. There were many high hopes for another fun and successful year in 1995-96.

High school is much more than just a place to learn about curriculum. There are many other activities that the students can participate in both during and after the school day. Sports are some of these things but there are also many clubs and organizations that students can enjoy. If there isn't an organization that students are interested in they can get together and get an adviser and begin their own club. The opportunities were limited only by their minds.

Mary Kunes has been a Majorette for most of her years at Euclid. Doloris Orbanic, Carrie Mack, Fritz Streiff, Shona Mc Cune, Tim De Wine, Meron Yimen and Kristina Geiger enjoy the times they had together in A.F.S. club. Wayne Arndt, Ed Mc Connell, Kathy Copic, Kris Eminger, Kristina Geiger, Christina Fabert, Katie Mc Guinness, Sharon Hollis, Kate Walker, Lindsay Freeman, Gina Zeman and Brian Udovich enjoy the good times at Studem Council.
Students interested in journalism get a chance to work on the Survey.

Todd Vicic, Omar Coles, Shaun Holness, Joe Dula and Mike Guarnieri are interested in music and are members of Euclid's Marching Band which performs at half-time of the football games and in many other events. Cheerleaders, Wendy Lapuh, Rashanda Lockett, Melanie Shippitka, Tanisha Blackwell, Christina Fabert, Gina Zeman and Kim Petrik had lots of fun cheering for the Panther Football team.

Kendra Proctor was able to participate as a Flag Corps member on the field during half-time.
Suddenly, after months of marching, standing at attention for what seemed like days, and playing up-beat, blasting tunes, students were thrown into a new style when marching band ended. Members of the Symphonic Concert Band had to sit still, follow downbeats, and played with dynamics other than triple forte (for those of you who didn’t speak the band jargon, this meant extremely loud).

This year the band consisted of about 70 students who rehearsed every day during 4th period. The band played five major concerts during the year. For the third year in a row, in January, the band members played a combined concert with the Hillcrest Concert Band. The director, Paul Lawrence, said he hoped these concerts become a tradition.

In March, the band took part in the Ohio Music Education Association (OMEA) large group contest. Other concerts included the Winter Concert, Spring Concert, and the All-City Concert. Many band members took part in solo or ensemble contests. Also, many students were involved in other musical activities outside of the band. The Symphonic Concert Band was directed by Miss Diane Tizzano.

-Beth Weinbrecht

Members of the woodwinds and the brass sections add to the overall quality of the band.
The Euclid High School Orchestra, under the direction of Mrs. Lisa Cheshier consisted of 13 violins, 4 cellos, 3 violas and 2 busses. The musicians practiced every day preparing for their scheduled concerts. In addition to normal concerts throughout the year, the orchestra performed at the I-X Center and also gave a performance for the 9th and 10th graders. Small groups in the Orchestra competed in solo and ensemble contests. Overall, it was a fun and productive year for all members.

-Aileen Glowacki

Marching Band was not all hard work, it was also fun. What was it that they did in Marching Band? They marched and when they were not marching they were practicing. When they weren't practicing during rehearsal they were tossing anything across the band floor, jamming with others on different pieces of music or just going crazy.

Marching Band, on average, performed about 15-20 shows during the season. That included all the football games, festivals, parades and performances for other schools. It takes a lot of work to get all the different instruments and people together into a cohesive unit and that was why Marching Band began three weeks before school began for everyone else. It took a lot of work to write the shows, learn the music and practice everything so it could be performed in front of the halftime crowd.

- Kevin Carlson
Euclid's 1994-95 Flag Corps began their season with a bang! With new director, Betsy Leonetti, and captains Chris Puglia and Tara Van Ho along with Lieutenants Amy Barber and Kisha Jones the corps took on a fun and challenging year. The Corps was reduced to a 19 girl squad, but that didn't stop the girls from conquering eleven football games, various parades, festivals and a competition. When their 4 months of long, hard dedication had come to a conclusion, it was time to say their good byes to the end of yet another great season. Everyone was sad to see the seniors leave but the underclassmen moved up to take their places in the program.

-Amy Barber

Chris Puglia performed all her routines with exceptional enthusiasm.

At the last regular game of the season, Amy Barber and Chris Puglia were in tears thinking about their many memories. The entire Flag Corps were together during one of their numbers. Paula Sustarsic was also in tears as she was being introduced at the last game of the season.

WATCH THE FLAGS
The 1994-95 Euclid Majorette Squad was led on the field by senior co-captains Paula Sustarsic and Mary Kunes. Together they twirled with seniors Amy Repko and Elizabeth Walters, Junior Stefanie Brown and three freshmen, Christy Gecewich, Kim Kosovich and Christy Peacock. They performed in every football game, various pep rallies, and continued lifting school spirit by marching through the halls. Their final performance was in the Memorial Day Parade in Euclid. During the summer at Majorette Camp at Marietta College Paula Sustarsic, Mary Kunes, Beth Walters, Stefanie Brown and Christy Peacock made “All American” which meant that they got to go to Orlando, Florida to perform during the halftime ceremonies in the Citris Bowl. The season was an enjoyable time that would be remembered by everyone.

The Euclid Jazz Band was again directed by Ms. Diane Tizzano and was able to perform at the annual Winter Concert and additional performances throughout the year. They worked together in the evening throughout the year to prepare for their performances.
...while Varsity Chorale sways to the rhythm.

Under the direction of Bea Grushcow and Ken Ferlito, the Varsity Chorale touched many hearts and performed in a variety of different places around Euclid including numerous nursing homes and elementary schools. The highlight of the year was having the honor to sing on the Morning Exchange. The Varsity Chorale also went to Toronto for their annual trip. They performed more than 20 shows during the winter holidays and many more shows were presented during the Spring. The students involved in Varsity Chorale feel that they are a family and develop a close relationship with each other since they see each other throughout the day and after school at practices. Varsity Chorale was a group of committed people who did what they love most, to perform and to sing.

-Kim Schoval

Varsity Chorale sang a series of songs at the Student Council Halloween Party that was held in the E-Room for the children of Euclid.
The seventh period Choraliers were directed by Ms. Diane Tizzano and included anyone who was interested in vocal music. They performed at the winter concert which was held on December 15 in the EHS Auditorium.

Euclid High School was introduced to a new program this year. It was called the Naval Junior Reserve Officers Training Corps or NJROTC for short. Euclid was one of 45 schools in the U.S., Japan, and Italy to begin a program in 1994 and one of the 360 active units established since 1966. NJROTC was about ships - Scholarship, Citizenship, and Leadership. Not only did cadets learn about the military but, more importantly, they learned about themselves. Commander Tomsic and Sergeant Major Isaacs assisted the cadets with organizing many fun filled field trips like the time one of the Blue Angel’s pilots came to speak to the group about flying. After a brief stay with the Blue Angels they got to go to Burke Lakefront’s special VIP section to see the Blue Angels in action. Their rifle team and Academic team were proudly able to represent EHS in National Competition. The Color Guard performed during the Homecoming game. Many cadets were also able to participate in Honor Details during the football season.

The Color Guard also carried the flags for the Cavs vs. Golden State game at the newly built Gund Arena. After a few months of drilling and learning standard regulations cadets were promoted to positions of higher responsibilities. Some of their responsibilities were to arrange field trips such as sea cruises aboard Naval and Coast Guard vessels and visiting Naval and other military facilities in different states. Many of them were in charge of certain departments such as Administration, Supply and Operations and such jobs as Public Affairs Officers, Armory, Platoon leaders, Squad Leaders, and Mustering Petty Officers. NJROTC was worth giving a try because participants learned many interesting things in a multitude of subject areas and about themselves. They got a chance to experiment with Leadership styles and learned management through application and trial and error. All of this and they got to have fun while doing it.

Clinic aides are there HELPING THE SICK for students who need them

If you had a free period in your schedule, you might have thought about being a clinic aide. Clinic aides had the opportunity to spend a whole period providing their services to students who needed them. The beginning of the year was the most hectic because of all the incoming freshmen but as the year progressed it became more routine. The job of a clinic aide consisted of getting students out of class for physicals, hearing and eye tests and doing mail runs. It was a really good way to meet a lot of the people in the school. The health aides, Mrs. Donata Schulz and Mrs. Mickey Segulin provided endless help and amusement for the aides.

S.A.D.D. wants all students to be responsible

Every year thousands of teenagers are injured or killed because of drinking and driving. The purpose of S.A.D.D. (Students Against Driving Drunk) was to get the message out to the students that driving and drinking should not go together. Before the winter break members passed out to all students red ribbons to be worn as a reminder to not mix driving and drinking.

Kids on the Block was a group of students that used puppets and performed at various elementary schools and tried to get a message across to the children about a variety of subjects such as name calling, divorce and drug use. Mrs. Joan Paskert was the adviser for the club.

Lydia Urh practices with her puppet for the show that she is going to present to the elementary schools.
There were many jobs that had to be done by the different offices at Euclid High School and it was the Office Aides who helped make those jobs manageable. The Office Aides gave up one or more of their study halls so they could help the secretaries in the different offices throughout the school. They helped the staff with filing, attendance reporting and running around the halls to give messages to teachers and students. They decorated the offices and made them a more enjoyable place to be. The school would not have run as smoothly without them.
Key Club is a national organization that help others

Key Club was an international service organization in which members learned the true meaning of the word service. Its purpose was to offer service to the school and the community. They collected food and money for needy families, and sponsored many worthwhile activities. Tom Walker was the President of the club and Mr. Allen Black was its adviser.

What did you do on Thursday evenings during the winter? That question was easy to answer for members of the Euclid High School Ski Club. They were out learning to ski at Boston Mills Ski Area. The school program allowed members to ski every Thursday that there were skiable conditions throughout the season. Students were able to take lessons at every session if they wanted to or just go out and ski if they already knew how. About a quarter of the members had their own skis but most of them got their equipment at the ski area. Ski club gave students who were not normally able to ski with friends or faculty a chance to learn to ski and be with a lot of other people in the same situation. Ski Club was for beginners. Everyone took lessons and was able to progress to a higher level of skiing ability after just a few sessions. Adviser, Bill Von Benken, remarked "It's just so enjoyable to watch the beginners come out and struggle at first but have so much fun doing it and to progress to a point of much higher enjoyment and proficiency throughout the season. Skiing does this since it is such an unnatural act. Everyone begins as a klutz, but no matter what level you ski it is so much fun as witnessed by the smiles on the students faces."

"It's fun and I think everyone should join. Everyone should learn how to ski. It's something you should know in life." Laura Fifolt

"Ski Club was a good way to spend time with your friends for your senior year and something else to do." Jamie Willett

Doug Zeman, Kevin Evans and Gina Zeman had their own skis so they were able to go out skiing right away but they later took lessons to improve their skills.

"I just started skiing and I'm learning...I'll be better by the end. It's fun when you can't ski and it's funner when you can and you can have fun even if you can't ski well. I got better." Mike Praskavich

Yashik Nakano, Jamie Smialek, Helene Schwartz, Kristen Sacko, Jessica Sas, Mike Praskavich, Paula Sustarsic, Jamie Godec, Danielle De Boe, Mike Svyn, Josh Holland and Jamie Willett meeting with their instructor for their first lesson. For many of them this was the first time they ever had skis on.

"Ski Club was a lot of fun. It's the first time I ever skied in my entire life and I went down the big hill with Von's help...it's a lot of fun and I'm going to do it again next year." Kristin Sacko
Euclidian preserves student's memories for a lifetime

This year's Euclidian, aptly titled Look At It This Way, displayed the numerous changes in the 1994-95 school year. Students involved with the Euclidian assisted the production by selecting and identifying pictures, updating data, tallying responses in questionnaires, writing stories, and running errands to the offices. The yearbook showcased the many events and activities of Euclid High School, and allowed student and faculty input.

Students Against Violating the Earth was Euclid's little known environmental group. It consisted of approximately ten members with only one returning from last years group. Their major projects during the year included a larger aluminum can recycling program and Adopt-a-Wolf and Adopt-a-Dolphin sponsorship. They also began a major paper recycling campaign making Euclid one of the first large high schools in Ohio to achieve that. With their adviser, Ms. Barbara Breeden and all members returning next year, they planned to expand their recycling projects to more Euclid students and become more active in the community.

Sports Aides help keep the teams in top shape

The Sports Aides were students who assisted the football, basketball and hockey teams. Their main responsibilities included supplying the athletes with refreshments, first aid and anything else that they might be needing. They did many of the little, unrewarding tasks that were necessary to keep the activities moving smoothly.

-Janeen Miklowski

Future Educators of America was looking out for America's future. Under the direction of advisers Mr. Frank Jablonski and Mrs. Judy Zubizarreta, and president Jenna Brzeczkowski, F.E.A. helped interested students prepare for a future in teaching, school administration or school counseling. Some of the activities that the members participated in were bake sales and shadowing teachers in the middle and elementary schools.

Poetry Club lets students express themselves through verse

Poetry Club was begun last year by some students who were interested in reading poetry. It continued this year under the direction of Advisers Barbra Spiga and Joyce Russo. During meetings, members read poetry that they have enjoyable or read verses that they have composed during the year.

Poetry Club members, Valerie Spears, Jon Schied, Leah Walczak, Rafael Brown, Gwen Wurm and Amanda Davis and Advisers, Barbara Spiga and Joyce Russo listen to poetry at a meeting.

Close Up gives students a chance to see how government works.

Want to see how the government runs? Then Close Up was the club for you. The members of Close Up sold candy and did other things to raise money for their annual trip to Washington, D.C. in the spring. There they met with other Close Up groups from around the country and visited many historic places in the nation's capital and attended meetings of the Congress and the Senate. They were able to see the government process close up. Mr. Wayne Smith was the adviser for the group.

Wai Napolo likes to do their swimming together.

What "Wai Napolo" means, you may never know. But you could know what they did. Wai Napolo was Euclid High School's synchronized swimming club, made up of under 20 members. Every May, they performed a spectacular water show made up of many group and individual routines. This year, they swam to showtunes. Mrs. Katie Morris was the adviser for the group and Karen Gezann and Kristin Kish were Co-Presidents.

-Wrinstin Kish
Culture Club was organized this year to meet the interest of Euclid students in foreign cultures. Mrs. Ingrid Koenig was the adviser. Meetings were informal, but productive as membership was small. This year the Culture Club offered foreign language tutoring through the help of foreign language teachers and student volunteers. The club also had a holiday party and went on cultural field trips, such as a visit to a Japanese restaurant. More activities were planned for upcoming years.

Numbering only two, the 1994-95 Library Aides had to work diligently to help keep our school's library neat and orderly. Their main responsibilities included shelving library materials such as books, magazines, and pamphlets, while maintaining the library. As always, the library aides looked ahead to their annual picnic at Memorial Park in the spring.

-Janeen Miklowski

Eucuyo publishes the creations of Euclid students

Eucuyo was an award-winning literary magazine, showcasing the creative talents of the writers and artists at Euclid. Headed by advisers Mrs. Judy Stobinski and Mrs. Joan Lidrbauch and editor Leah Walczak, the staff raised money for expensive production costs in the early part of the year. Springtime meant choosing which poems, short stories, essays, photographs, and artwork would appear in the magazine. An equally difficult task was arranging the pieces into a satisfactory layout. The issue came out near the end of the year, proving that Euclid houses some extremely imaginative and talented artists and writers. Eucuyo continued its legacy of expressing the thoughts and reflections of youth.

The Audio Visual Club was the life of the school. All of the movies, copies and other equipment were all provided by that club. Under the direction of adviser, Allen Black, the members produced the morning announcements as well as all technical portions of assemblies, programs and plays. Members were trained to use cameras, stage lights and sound systems. The club was responsible for delivering AV equipment, fixing copy machines and acting as an overall service to teachers and students.

ANNOUNCING THE NEWS

...while the P. A. announcers make the reports

Broadcasting the school’s news was the duty of the P.A. Announcers. Every day, specific students were assigned to arrive at school by 7:25 a.m. in order to prepare. Airing live, the announcers informed and updated the school on current events, sports, and other activities. With the assistance of the Media Aides, who set up the cameras and controlled studio production, the P.A. Announcers were able to present the school's highlights every day.

The Survey distributes information throughout the school.

It was stimulating being involved in the making of the school newspaper. It allowed the participants to see how all the activities came together and how the production of the paper occurred. From giving out the assignments, to seeing that they were carried out, to seeing the issue go to the printer, it was a very involved process. Of course, there were always surprises that developed, but these only served to keep the staff on its toes.

It was also scary knowing that what was put in the paper was seen by over 3500 people. You were part of a team that was responsible for telling people, whether inside or outside the school, what was happening with the students of Euclid High. Seeing the finished product made all the work worthwhile and seeing their name on a story made the staff members forget how many headaches they had to go through to get it out. Mr. Stan Bender was the new adviser for the Survey and had to learn a lot about how to get everything to work together.

Distributive Education enables students to learn about business.

This year the D.E.C.A. (Distributive Education Clubs of America) had a new teacher. Mrs. Jean Jelinic became the new adviser after the former adviser, Mr. Jim Presot moved to another school. D.E.C.A. was a student run club that coincided with Euclid's Marketing Education class. It was designed for juniors and seniors who were interested in a career in marketing and management. In their junior year, the students attended classes and studied the stock market, business finance, marketing research, and many other business-related activities. Seniors spent part of their day in school learning about everything from job interviewing to advertising and sales. During the remainder of the day they were employed in retail establishments within the Euclid area in a variety of retail, wholesale, and service capacities. In D.E.C.A., students competed against other high school students on the local, state, and national level in areas related to their career interest.
On October 31, 1994 Euclid High School celebrated its annual Halloween dress-up day and many students came to school dressed as many spooky, scary or cute characters. During the lunch periods Student Council sponsored contests for the different types of costumes. The activities continued into the evening with the Children's Halloween Party for youngsters in the community. Student Council members were dressed up and there were many games for the children to play. Varsity Chorale performed several numbers during the evening and Kathy Copic put on a magic show. It was a wet and gloomy night outside but the students inside had an enjoyable time.

National Honor Society members help the school and the community.

The National Honor Society attempted to become more organized in order to accomplish its many goals. The group continued to arrange ice cream socials for students who achieved Honor Roll status, and also aided parents at Parent-Teacher Conferences. Some of the organization's community service projects included reading to elementary children during Right-To-Read week, and getting involved with Habitat for Humanity. N.H.S. was designed to recognize the school's best. Elected as President and Vice-President were Leah Walczak and Wendy Lapuh, while Janeen Miklowski and Kesha Buggs held the offices of secretaries and Laura Fifolt was the historian. The new adviser for this year was Mrs. Dolores Black.

Runaway reindeer returned by Grumbleskins

On December 14, 15, 16, and 17, Euclid presented its annual Holiday Play which was written and directed by English teacher, Ms. Judith L. Carmody. Matinee performances were provided for the elementary schools and an evening performance for the rest of children occurred on Friday. Kringle-Krangle and the Runaway Reindeer dealt with the problems that arose at the North Pole just before the Holidays when two clumsy elves accidentally forgot to lock up reindeer hall and the reindeer escaped and were found by the Grumbleskins who wanted to hold them for ransom. They had a change of heart, however, and returned them in time for their usual holiday activities.

Santa and Robot, CW3, gave out gifts after the performance.

Student Council is the organization that gets things done

Student Council went through a series of changes this year. A newly developed executive board allowed every class to have their own officers. Because of this there were many new faces. Though many of these officers lacked experience, it was made up for by their enthusiasm and energy. Great ideas from these students combined with good attendance contributed to a successful year of EHS student government.

On December 5, Student Council sponsored its semiannual blood drive. Students who donated blood had to be at least 17 years old and weigh at least 105 pounds. Many students and staff members got into the good habit and donated their blood which was a big help to the area hospitals since there is always a need for blood during the winter holidays. Katie McGuinness, Mike Swyt, Rafael Brown and Lindsay Freeman are seen here helping Mary Kunes give blood.

Student Council's annual Halloween party was, once again, a great success. Besides the normal carnival games and animated heroes, Varsity Chorale performed a special Halloween show. Kathy Copic showed her stuff in a great magic show and everyone enjoyed the assorted refreshments. There was everything from princesses to Power Rangers. Everyone had a great time and are looking forward to subsequent years. Here you see Becky Hren and Annie Wein running one of the games for the children.

The beginning of the 1994-95 school year saw the counselors in their new offices in what used to be the Panther Den. It also saw a new principal, Mr. Robert Knuth, who was announced following the resignation of two-year principal, Mr. Bill Scoggan. Mr. Knuth's office was moved back to where the principal's office was several years ago in the Administrative Corridor. Other changes that occurred in the offices were the hiring of new secretaries to help keep track of attendance and the installation of more phone lines so that secretaries and teachers could make more calls home to parents. It was felt that the way to improve attendance was to contact the parents at home and if they couldn't be reached at home then they would be called at work. More security guards were hired to help enforce the school rules so the school could run more smoothly.
Robert Knuth is principal and Director of Secondary Education

Mr. Robert H. Knuth became the principal of Euclid High School near the end of the summer following the resignation of former principal, Mr. Bill Scoggan who left to take another job in Oklahoma. Mr. Knuth was a graduate of Euclid High School and has been the Director of Secondary Education since 1989. He retained both jobs during the 1994-95 school year. He tried to improve the school climate by establishing a stricter discipline policy and made sure that every student was aware of what was expected of them.

The new principal instituted a dress code that limited some of the clothes that students could wear to school. This did not, however, alter what Refael Brown and Fritz Streiff wore during Homecoming week when the students were to dress up in 70’s fashions.

Lots of things have changed at Euclid

With the installation of a new principal many things have undergone change. There is a new attendance policy, a new tardiness policy, a new dress code, a new eating policy, a new parking policy, a new suspension policy and a new classes. The policies were installed to try to solve problems or to keep new ones from developing. The new attendance and tardiness policy was installed to decrease the increasing number of absences and tardinesses to class. The dress code was to make the students look better. The no eating in the halls and classrooms policy was to help keep the school cleaner. The parking permits were needed to keep track of the students who drive to school. Some students did not like the new policies but they were instigated because students were not following the rules. If everyone behaved there would be no reason to have rules.

Mr. Bill Kazen was one of the teachers in charge of the In School Suspension Room which was a much stricter place this year.

Chris Tratnik monitors the activity in the hallways and outside the school using the cameras that were installed throughout the school.

Eric Stambaugh, Shannon Moore, Mekeleya Yimen, Mary Wolf and Meron Yimen learn about French foods in Mrs. Pla’s French 11 class.
In an effort to improve attendance, a new attendance policy was adopted for the 1994 school year. In order to implement this, a new person was hired in the attendance office. Parents were required to call in if their children were absent. If a call was not received, the secretary would call home to find out about the absence. After school, the teachers received an absence list and they would have to indicate whether or not there were any discrepancies between it and what they found in class for the day. Any differences had to be reported to the attendance office. The following morning, the teachers received an updated attendance list which had some of the errors corrected. Throughout the day, students were called down to the offices and had to explain why there was an error. Because of that, the attendance list was much more accurate than in previous years.

Because of the new attendance policy, teachers had to go down to the Main Office right after school to check their absence lists and record any discrepancies. Here are Bob Ramlow and Pat Buck comparing their absence lists with their class attendance.

Kevin Carlson knows that it is important to be in school everyday and to follow the attendance rules. Heather Koceur tries to impress upon her class the importance of being in school every day and have a valid excuse if you aren't present. Students cannot learn if they are not in class. These students are in class and learning.

Euclid provides students with a place to learn

In order to learn, students had to be in a place where it was clean and the teachers and the surroundings were a positive influence. Euclid had many fine teachers who were concerned with the welfare of their students so they had an opportunity to succeed.

Judy McLaughlin, Barbara Spiga, Ingrid Koenig and Dolores Black watching the students during a rally in the gym.

Deborah Petrick tries to get her students to understand the importance of a foreign language.

Head Football Coach, Tom Banc, watches the action taking place on the field so that he can send in the right play.

Computer teacher, Mike Durbin, explaining the importance of being computer literate in today’s society.

Tom Halbedel helps his students to learn science.
Paula Sheridan helps Shelly Lumpkin, Elnora Caldwell, Damian Harris, John Vegal and Joe Moore to get the basics of Home Economics.
Mike Sustin wants his students to do well in his science course.

Ron Zueca helps his students learn to use the computers.
Kathy Pasquale helps David Harris and Joe Barzal get important information.
Marie Clarke wants her students to become proficient in the kitchen.
Dick York, Science, English, Special Education Dept. Chairperson
Judith Zubizarreta, Spanish, Foreign Language Dept. Chairperson
Ron Zucca, Math, Algebra Connections

Math teacher, Gene Bercant, helps his students to understand the concepts of logic.
Students spent three years as underclassmen at Euclid High School. During that time they went from being a new freshman who was in awe with the size of the school to juniors who were well versed in the operation of the building. It was a growing up and learning process that they all had to go through. It was necessary to prepare them to become seniors.

Jennifer McCreight works hard to improve her tennis game for next year. Joi Hutton shows a lot of concentration as she waits for her cues during a half-time performance.

Erin Vincenti and Beth Kramer help out with the football team by supplying the players with water during the game.
When the freshmen arrived at the high school they were faced with four years of education ahead of them. Ben Mooney, Randy Scott and Mike Pikus came to enjoy their time at Euclid High School.

Angela Miklavcic knows that studying is the only way that she is going to be able to succeed. Alison FitzGerald works hard in her classes but also has time to be a member of the volleyball and other sports teams. Paul Glowacki and Derek Stanic enjoy their time on the cross-country course.
The Class of 1998 came to Euclid High School with a sense of awe. They couldn't believe it was so huge. Two pools, two gyms, an indoor track, a planetarium, the E-room; there was just so much to it. Much time was spent trying to figure out where their classes were and how to get there. It was hard to believe that in a few short years these freshmen would become seniors.

Mandy McPeek and Lindsay Freeman watch as Stephanie Fox signs an interest form for Student Council on her first day at Euclid. Stephanie made a typical remark about Euclid when she said it was “confusing...big and hot” and that she was “looking forward to volleyball”.

All the freshmen gathered in the Auditorium the first day of school to learn about Euclid.

Emanuel Burton, Antoine Fisher and Mike Higgins enjoying their lunch on the first day of school. Antoine said “I enjoy the football games...I'm going to be playing tailback”. Mike said “I'm playing football...cornerback like I did in middle school”.

The sophomore year was an enjoyable one for most students. The building was much more familiar and it was much easier to find your way around. After escaping from the ninth grade most students were able to establish themselves as young adults who wanted to get ahead. Many chose that year to become involved in the many extracurricular activities that were available such as sports and clubs.

Louis Besses and Lino Sergo are involved in their classwork as well as outside activities. Karen Gezann, Leah Walczak and Jenny McCleight enjoy their lunch.

Jaina Blackford, Meghan Orazen, Amanda Edsall and Sara Arnold were enjoying their sophomore year when they dressed up for Halloween.

"To me sophomore year is different from freshmen year in a way that the togetherness is gone and classwork is much harder because is expected out of you."
-Marianne Wilson

"I have matured a lot over a certain period of time. I'm just a sophomore, but it doesn't feel that way. I feel this year is easier than last year as a freshman."
-Veronica Mc Graw

"This year has been very good for me. I believe this year I have matured more and I'm really ready for a challenge this year."
-Carmekia Harris

Stephanie Di Biase, Jenny Mc Creight, Beth Weinbrecht and Danielle Calabrese find much warmth and friendship with other members of the Marching Band.
Many sophomores felt that their freshman year was a time for banding together and forming superficial relationships to resist the pressures of a huge, new environment. After becoming sophomores, however, more time could be devoted to forming more intimate relationships that could last a lifetime. Sophomores looked at relationships differently from the way freshmen did.

- Marianne Wilson

“This year has been good. Not as much fun as last year because freshman year was a lot easier. Being a sophomore has helped me mature. The work is more challenging.”

- Angela Suchy

“I feel that the teachers treat us more like adults and I think that we have matured much more since last year.”

Freshman year was history. Sophomores looked forward to more freedoms and responsibilities as they continued their trek up the ladder of seniority at Euclid High School. New friendships were formed, others matured while some dissolved. The togetherness experienced as freshmen decreased as individuality developed.

"When you are a junior the rest of the people are more mature and that makes the class more enjoyable."

Brendan McGee
Many students liked school but almost everyone agreed that they wanted to be out of high school and be able to get into the rest of the world. Juniors were one year closer to that goal than sophomores and two years closer than when they were freshmen. Many juniors agreed that it was a year of maturing and time to begin planning seriously for the future. Post high school plans had to be made and most of the students were thinking about which college they were interested in. They were making decisions that could very well affect what would be going on for the rest of their lives. Of course, many juniors had no idea what there were going to do but many others were planning ahead and getting information about choices.

Many of these students will be thinking of the future very seriously. Beth Weinbrecht, Missy Bonfiglio, Kelly Smith, Kristen Sacko, Mike Praskavich and Jim Swyt know that a knowledge of science will help them in the future. Jennifer McCreight enjoys playing tennis but she is also academically oriented so that she will be able to look on to higher education. "Junior year is kind of scary because you have to begin making decisions that affect the rest of your life."

Katie McGuinness

Juniors
Juniors were very similar to most high school students in that they wanted to express their individuality. Some of the ways that students expressed their individuality were through the way they dressed, the way they spoke, the music they listened to and whom they associated with. One of the greatest pressures that students were exposed to was that of peer pressure. The true individuals didn't care what others thought of them but most of the students were only concerned about how they were perceived by their peers and did not want to do anything that they felt would not be approved by the students around them.

-Sylvia Eler and Janeen Miklowski

Paula Rees, Missy Bonfiglio, Deanna Lauver, Melanie Bergole, Les Kausk, Scott Granito, Christina Faber, Fritz Streiff and Regina Motiejunas show off some of the different ways that students can dress to show their individuality.

Juniors are very concerned with the impressions they make

Kendra Proctor and David Tisi have no problem looking at the camera, but Christina Fabert seems to be so interested in Latell Stewart that she can’t keep her eyes straight.
The students entered their freshman year filled with excitement and fear. Now, as they looked back on graduation, they experienced similar feelings. Though they may feel that way, they must not forget the changes they've gone through, growing in different ways, the times of celebration and the times they would rather forget. Many changes occurred to those little freshmen who began at Euclid four years ago. They grew academically, socially, physically, emotionally, athletically and many other ways. Some students excelled in certain activities while others excelled in other things. Emotionally students grew and learned how to love, have faith, control hatred, and even trust. There were good times and bad ones. Hopefully they got a chance to learn from everything. Being a senior was a wonderful thing for most of them.

Being a senior was what almost everyone in high school wanted to be. It was being at the top of the ladder. It meant having the most responsibilities. It meant having underclassmen looking up at you. It was as high as you could go at Euclid High School. You had to set examples for the rest of the school. The seniors were the ones who were the leaders.

Seniors were an important part of the football rallies.

Lindsay Freeman, Liz Domini, Marina Corleto, Katie Baioni, Dana Vance, Amie Salerno, Jamie Piscitello and Kevin Gady had a good time at the Homecoming Dance. Homecoming King Ben Mooney and Principal Robert Knuth enjoyed each other's company during the Homecoming game.
This year the members of the senior class were polled as to which teacher gave the most homework. The clear winner in this category was Mr. Jeff Hartmann. Mrs. Bette Schmeling came in second and Mr. Ron Powaski came in third. Other teachers that received votes were Bob Petrovic, Betsy Leonetti, Carol Tkac, Jo-Rita Perez, Dennis Turkall, Alex Dzerowicz, Gene Brearton, Wayne Smith, Rick Wherley, Frank Hoffert, Terry DuBroy, Deborah Petrick, Judy Zubizarreta, Judy Carmody, Joyce Russo, Penny Roberts, Joan Lidrbauch, Carole Niebes, Judy Stobinski, Stan Bender, Charles Reno, Rob Heramb, and Ken Schriner.

Mr. Rick Wherley, Mr. Robert Heramb and Mrs. Judy Stobinski were some of the teachers mentioned as giving a lot of homework.

Seniors were asked whether or not they had attended Euclid schools their entire life. 51% responded that they had while 49% responded that they had not. Of the ones that had not attended all their years the range was from eleven years to one year in the Euclid system. When the same question was asked in 1994, 61.3% responded that they were in the Euclid schools their entire life.

Most of the students in this picture have probably gone to Euclid schools their entire lives.

Ray Miller and Kristin Kish working together in the library. Chris Puglia was a member of the Flag Corps that really put her heart into her actions. All of these students have spent their entire lives in the Euclid schools.
In a poll, seniors were asked whether or not they lived in a house. 82.2% of the seniors responded that they did, while 17.8% said they didn't. In last year's poll the response was 86.2% lived in a house. These numbers are almost equal, so there doesn't seem to be much difference in the city's housing.
Section title: Students realize the importance of being in school every day

Seniors were polled as to whether or not they believed that it was important to be in school every day. 68% responded that it was important to be in school every day while 22.3% didn't believe it was. This was very close to last year's results where 69.5% said it was important and 17.9% said it wasn't important.

Ken Schuster, Angela Meros, Sharon Hollis, Kevin Carlson, Jessica Sas, Leah Walzak, Kathy Graham and Beckie Glavan and Cindy Ciulla and Kelly Focareto all realize the importance of being at school.
Seniors were polled as to whether they felt that a person without a high school diploma could get a very good job. Only 7.8% felt that they could. Over 83% of the seniors thought that they couldn’t. This was very comparable with last year’s poll in which 6.2% felt they could and 80.2% felt that they couldn’t. Some of the people that responded ‘maybe’ added that it depended on who you knew and on special circumstances.

Narketa Wooten, DeLeonte Brown, Aisha Tillman, Manicka Collins, Ken Jordan, Vernesha Johnson, Jennifer Hall, Katrina Sharpe and Hershel Hall enjoyed themselves at Homecoming but know that they have to be back to school on Monday to continue their studies.

Stacie Glavan, Kim Schoval, Amy Guy and Meredith Bell know the importance of studying hard and getting good grades so that they can get the high school diploma and they can go on to higher forms of education.
Most seniors realize the importance of school attendance

Seniors were asked whether or not they usually came to school every day. 82.5% of the students replied that they did while 12.6% of them said they didn't. In last year's poll, 85.6% said they usually came every day and 10.0% said they didn't. The results were very similar with no significant difference between the two years.

Jennifer Zelenskas and Meg Wolchko have good attendance records since they enjoy being with each other at school.

Darnia Mc Kinney spends a lot of time in school since he is involved in athletics and realizes the importance of being in school and getting a good education.

Marc Stauffer takes some lessons from Melanie Shippitka about how to get the fans involved in the game. Both of them are involved in many activities and realize the importance of good attendance.

Do you feel a person with a high school diploma can get a very good job?

Many seniors realize you have to have education beyond high school. Seniors were polled as to whether or not they believed a person with just a high school education could get a very good job. 40.6% responded that they could while 37.6% said that they couldn't. In last year's poll, 31.9% felt that they could and 38.5% felt that they couldn't. The results from both years are very similar and it shows that a significant part of the senior class knows that they must go on to get some form of higher education if they are going to amount to anything.

Olen Steelman, Tony Laurich and Steve Pae plan on using their athletic skills to help them get to college so they can further their education.

Kevin Gorman seems to be thinking about what he will be doing next year. All these students have to be concerned with what they will be doing in the future. The Homecoming bonfire was a fun time for these students but they still have to be concerned with what they will be doing in the future.
Most seniors realize that a college education is important

In the poll, seniors were asked whether or not they intended to go to college. 86.3% of the seniors responding said that they did intend to go to college. 7.8% said that they were not intending on going to college. This was very similar to last year’s results where 92.5% said they were going to college and 4.3% said they were not. This showed that seniors realized the advantages that they would get if they attended college and that they realized that a high school education was not the end to their educational process.

Irma Peredne and Dave Burke, Kevin Gady and Josh Holland know that in order to get into a good college they are going to have to study and get good grades and that the Library is a good place to help them accomplish that.

Having school spirit and participating in school activities is an important part of getting into a good college since many colleges look at the student’s activities as well as their grades. Some Euclid seniors never had their pictures taken

We tried very hard to ensure that every senior had a picture taken for the yearbook. The photographers came to Euclid twice to take senior pictures but some students missed both picture dates. When possible, we used underclass pictures from previous years. Unfortunately, these students are not pictured: Amber Ballash, Timothy Barzal, Dawn Britsky, Mike Burdecki, Michael Ciofani, Gregory Compton, Daniel Duvall, Joel Espiritu, Shawn Forster, Eric Frederick, Ryan Fretter, Rob Garrison, Matthew Gerome, Damien Gooden, Bryan Kelly, Todd Kravos, Wendy Lemieux, Dana Marino, Dan McDonald, Jennifer Mulanax, Jason Mullen, J. Tom Nelson, Sean Nelson, Eric Parks, John Pata, Gary Pickup, Dawn Piotrowski, Brian Reber, Paul Rini, Cara Scholl, Michael Sipos, Stacy Skeel, Dan South, Joseph Sprafka, Chad Steffens, Steven Tegner, Michael Thomas, and James Weinpert.

For the first time in many years Euclid students got a chance to elect officers for their respective classes. Euclid always had a Student Council but it did not have a set of officers that were elected by the student body. It was felt that class officers would be another means of communication between the students and the administration. They also helped out with many of the activities that was normally done by the Student Council.

Seniors
E uclid offered many opportunities for students to get involved in activities during the school day and after the school day was over. There was also a complete list of sports that the students could participate in. Freshmen even had their own sports program where they could compete with other freshmen teams. There was no reason why a student could not find something that they were interested in at Euclid High School. If a group of students were interested in something that there was no formal club they could always find an adviser and begin their own club. All that was needed was a desire to interact in a particular way.

Amy Repko has found that her time at Euclid is made more enjoyable by participating in Majorettes during the football season.

ENJOYING THEMSELVES

Most Euclid students enjoyed their high school years

Have you enjoyed your years at Euclid High School?

The seniors at Euclid were asked whether or not they enjoyed their years in high school. About 86% said that they did or maybe did. Only 14.2% said that they did not. In a similar poll last year 93% said that they did or maybe did and 6.4% said that they did not. In any situation like that, there would always be some people who do not like what was going on.

Ken Jordan, Bina Stitt, Narketa Wooten and Delene Brown had a good time with each other during Homecoming.

Jade Toller, Paula Sustarsic, Ben Linn, Mark Killion, Jessica Adams, Martha Urh, Helene Schwartz, Amy Repko, Yolanda Jones and Danielle Picard all seem to be having a good time in their class.

Jessica Kochis, Karen Touschner, Nikki Christopher, Janet Fonovic, Mary Shenk, Rich Slade, Kathy Copic, Greg Pesek, Josh Holland and Matt Hoffman are really calling to the world and telling it how much they enjoyed Euclid.
When the seniors were asked who the person they most admired was, their mother was the person who received the most responses. 41.7% of the students reported that their mother was the person they most admire. 11.1% responded that it was their father and 8.3% said it was a former teacher. 4.2% admired themselves the most and 34.6% of the seniors reported brothers, sisters, aunts, uncles, grandparents and others.

Seniors were asked whether or not they came to school in a car. Less than 19% said that they did not which compares closely with the 14% who said they did not come to school in a car last year. When asked whether or not they did the driving, 28.6% said that they did not and 64.9% said that they did. Last year 45% said they did the driving and 42% said that they did not. The automobile was a very important part in the lives of seniors at Euclid.

Kim Clark works at Scottos Pizza so she can drive her own car to school.

Sylvia Eler works at the Slovene Home for the Aged so she can drive her car to school.

Kristin Kish and Melissa Leach work at Camelot Music when they are not at school. Kristin only drives occasionally.

Christine Puglia comes to school in her car and finds it useful for getting to Flag Corps practices.
Every year seniors are asked about some of the most embarrassing moments that they have suffered through during their years. All the responses can be divided into two main categories; students who have been embarrassed by tripping on stairways and everything else. Enchanted students have experienced a wide variety of anxious moments and have been gracious enough to share some of them with everyone else.

Laura Baber was embarrassed when she forgot to pick up Maria Schiavoni for school and she waited, but never went.

Maria Barker was embarrassed when she was in the ninth grade and was about to be late for class so she was running down the hall really fast and a teacher opened a door and she ran right into it.

Jameka Bloom was embarrassed when she went with her mother to Red Lobster and ordered crab legs and she tried to crack one open and one of the legs flew away and landed two tables behind her.

Niki Brennan was embarrassed when she walked into the wrong class two periods in a row.

Jenna Brzeczkowski was embarrassed in the eleventh grade when she thought she was decorating Carrie Howell's locker and found out she had decorated the wrong locker and had to go back and take off all the decorations.

Al Cade was embarrassed when he came to school with a bad hair cut and when he spelled his name incorrectly.

Adrienne Chini was embarrassed when she stood up to leave Mr. Pignatiello's sophomore geometry class and lost her balance and fell on her butt in front of everyone.

Cindy Ciulla was embarrassed when she passed gas in the library and everyone blamed it on Renee Pecnik and were laughing. The hard and Cindy joined in on the laughter. That's how Renee got her nickname "Little Pooper.

Kimberly Clark was embarrassed when she slid down the incline of the hallway by the auditorium.

George Cutwright was embarrassed when he was in the E-room and went to sit down and his friend kicked the chair out from under him and he fell on the ground near some girls.

Michelle Dineen was embarrassed during her junior year when she went sled riding with her friends on McDonalds hill and hit a bump and went flying off the sled and landed on her face and ended up with a bloody nose, a trip to the hospital, a broken cheek bone and a black eye that was swollen shut for days.

Demetrius Dowell was embarrassed during his freshman year when it was cold and he wore a lot of powder in his shorts so he would not get all sweaty and he was sitting in history class and passed gas. He tried to act like it wasn't him but a big cloud of powder came out of his shorts and rose straight up around him.

Laura Eifert was embarrassed when she drove to school just after she got her license in a huge Delta 88 and got trapped crooked between two cars. She began crying and had to call her mother to move it.

Lindsay Freeman has never been embarrassed since she is way too cool for that. She makes other people feel embarrassed.

Kevin Gady was embarrassed when he began fifth grade and bought some bright red hightops. He thought they were cool until he began classes and everyone began laughing at them and calling him 'Big Red'.

Melanie Shipitka is not embarrassed in her German class with Danielle Ebright and Angelyn Mattson because she has not fallen out of her chair, like she did in the Little Theater.

Wendy Lapuh is embarrassed when the rest of the cheerleaders did their cartwheels and she couldn't decide whether to go right or left.

Jessica Hopkins tells Pam Jordan about the time when Melanie Shipitka tripped her with her crutch.

Lindsay Freeman shows her ability to keep cool when speaking to her classmates at the Homecoming assembly.
Moments
some of their funniest moments

Brett Higgins was embarrassed when he drove his car into the back of a school bus.
Amy Hodder was embarrassed when she was running out to Miss Marolt's car after softball practice and tripped over the curb and fell on her face in the parking lot and got a sprained ankle.
Jessica Hopkins was embarrassed when Melanie Shippitka tripped her with her crutch her first day of school during her freshman year.
Melinda Johnson was embarrassed when she fell in a pile of dog stuff on her way to school in the eighth grade. Nobody was around but she heard about when she got home.
Kisha Jones was embarrassed when she was studying at the library during her junior year and fell out of the chair.
Kristin Kish was embarrassed when her shorts had a huge hole in the butt and she got to school before she realized that her skirt wasn't as long as she thought it was.
Sara Kuchen was embarrassed when she went to class, sat down and realized she was sitting in the wrong class.

Wendy Lapuh was embarrassed at Winterfest during her junior year when she found out the day before the dance that her date had his hockey game rescheduled so he couldn't go to the dance. He tried to find her another date and everyone in school found out about it. She ended up asking someone five hours before the dance began.

Jeff Latine was embarrassed when he had a fight with his girlfriend in the cafeteria and when he turned around he saw that everyone was looking at him.

Jeff Morris was embarrassed when he dressed up as a girl for Halloween, 1993 and forgot to put shorts on under his skirt and was de-skirted twice in the middle of the cafeteria by Matt Lucas, Carl Bartlett and Steve Zahursky.

John Scarniench was embarrassed during his first home JV football game when Euclid fumbled the ball and he was the only Euclid player near the ball and the players on the sidelines were yelling to him to get the ball but he just stood there.

Kim Schoval was embarrassed when she was running up the stairs and noticed her skirt was all the way up and her butt was showing.
Carliss Scott was embarrassed when she ran into the pool wall underwater and almost broke her nose.
Melanie Shippitka was embarrassed when she fell out of a chair in the Little Theater during English class because it broke.
Rich Slade was embarrassed because of the hideous hairstyle he had as a freshman. He had 4" spiked hair on top with the sides combed back and long hair in the back.

Jaime Trucheck was embarrassed when he asked Wendy Lapuh out to Look-Out Point and she thought it was Cedar Point. When he corrected her, she laughed and then still said "Noooww".

Brian Udoich was embarrassed when he chased Helene Schwartz around in first grade trying to kiss her and she turned around, slapped him, and he cried.
Bridgette Varnjic was embarrassed when she was sound asleep in Mrs. Wheeler's chemistry class and when he woke her up she shot up and said "Your sister's here!"

Tom Walker was embarrassed as a sophomore when he was pole vaulting at home. He attempted an 8 foot vault, missed the mat and landed on a box. The entire crowd shouted "ooooohhhh!" at the same time and then began laughing.

Gina Zeman was embarrassed as a sophomore when she was at cheerleading practice doing back flips. She tucked too much and knocked herself out, broke her own nose, gave herself a concussion and as a result had amnesia. She couldn't remember anything and started doing cheers backwards and lost her memory of the entire day.

And finally there are Clarissa Bove, Jessica Dietz, Jewell Hagood, Chris Kiepucka, Leila Lewis, Janine Mlkowski, Christine Porey, Cindy Parker, Janoris Reese, Chris Schmidt, Bina Stitt, Deborah Zagore and Jennifer Zelenskas all had embarrassing moments dealing with stairs and falling down or up them.
Seniors

Seniors have many fond memories of events that occurred during their lifetimes. Some of these memories were of circumstances that took place at Euclid High School. Seniors were asked to share their favorite memory with everyone. Do you remember when...

...Euclid wasn’t as strict, girls wore their hair real high, and the guys didn’t sag their pants? (Dawn Adams)

...Michelle Diene went out with Chad Dulla? (Laura Baher)

...Euclid had all those bomb threats and everyone got to go home, but they finally got a trace on the calls and that ended all the fun? (Maria Barker, Clarissa Bowie, Niki Brennan, Sandy Brown, Jamie Chitwood, Cindy Ciulla, Sara Kuben, Joe Marcelli, Christine Parey, Kim Schoval, Trisha Sergo, Rich Slade, Leah Walczak)

...Euclid had its pep rally when Mr. Pasquale and Mr. Peterson shaved their heads bald? (Jameka Bloom)

...Euclid didn’t have as many rules? (Aaron Boyce, Kyle Bush)

...Euclid had awesome freshman (class of 1995)? (Rafael Brown)

...people thought sweaters, French cuffed jeans and penny loafers were cool? (Jenna Brzezowski)

...Euclid looked a lot bigger? (Paul Carpenter, Tony Verch Jr., Tom Walker)

...you could walk through the hallways without being endlessly harassed by every security guard in sight? (Adrienne Chiniki, Jessica Dietz, Ryan Eddy, Jennifer Kascak, Mark Killion, Kristin Kish, Angie La China, Jeff Latine, Christine Puglia, Chris Schmidt, Helene Schwartz, Jamie Willett)

...Euclid had two fires and a bomb threat in the same year (91-92)? (Kimberly Clark)

...the school caught on fire and we got a whole day off? (George Cutwright, Carl Nash)

...Euclid was fun? (Kim Dominique, Leisha Jones, Chris Kletecka, Jamie Trocheck)

...you could attend a football game at home and be able to walk around and talk with your friends? (Kris Emminger)

...the varsity soccer team had Doug Dunn as a coach? (Laura Fifolt)

...Kristina cried when she didn’t win the A.F.S. handless phone? (Lindsay Freeman)

...Euclid didn’t have rent-a-cops? (Bill Gast)

...they didn’t tell you over the P.A. system when the bell was going to ring? (Karen Gazzan)

...there were no security guards, no cameras on the school buses, you could eat and drink in classes, driver’s education was only $50? (Jewel Hagood)

...you could walk down the hallway without seeing someone’s underwear hanging out of their pants? (Amy Hodder)

...the Marching Band was on a truck driving through Euclid playing music in the rain to help the levy pass? (Kisha Jones)

...we had fun times during chemistry labs when I set Laura Fifolt’s lab book on fire? (Wendy Lapohl)

...Matt Lucas and Steve Zalusky set their lab drawer on fire in Mr. Von Benken’s chemistry class? (Jeff Morris)

...students had spirit? (Carissa Scott)

...had fewer students? (Mandy Siplock)

...Mr. Mc Guinness and Mr. Scoggan were principals and seniors had privileges? (Mike Swyt)

...we were freshmen and drugs and sex were never talked about? (Brian Udovich)

...cutting school was easy? (Bridgette Varjour)

...Euclid didn’t care about certain things that they now do care about? (Michelle Wenderoth)

...had a bell that rang? (Jennifer Zelanskas)

Travis Reid, Fritz Streiff, Rafael Brown, Gina Zeman and Christopher Litwinowicz will remember many of the good times that they had when they were members of Student Council.

Chris Kletecka and Mike Swyt show how much they would cheer for all the good times that they had at Euclid during the annual children’s Halloween Party in the E-room sponsored by Student Council.
Most Euclid students have never been suspended

In the poll that was taken of seniors, most responded that they had never been suspended out of school from Euclid. About 20% of the seniors responded that they had been suspended out of school and 80% said that they had never been suspended.

Dana Malaney dances with Rick Wolfe during Homecoming.
Marina Corleto teaches gymnastics to young children at Lakeshore Dance and Gymnastics and knows the importance of following the school rules so she is not suspended.

Donna Beuoy and Jeneen Miklowski, working in the Library, have to keep a positive mental attitude so they can approach every school day with the attitude of learning.

Sara Kuhne, Mary Kiral and Valerie Young enjoying themselves during the Homecoming Assembly.

Nikki Christides is a good student who obeys the school rules and is trying to earn money for college by working at Mc Donalds.
The final deadline for the 1994 Euclidian was at the beginning of March so everything that happened after that could not be included in the book. Because of that we are including the highlights from the end of the year in this section.

Mandy Siplock, Heather Mulhall, Karen Gezann and Samantha Hoffa performing in the Wai Napolo Swim Show on April 29,30.

Parents in the stands during Euclid's first graduation in the football stadium.
Marc Stauffer and Daina Butkus look on as Daina's father considers their request to marry during Fiddler On The Roof which was performed on March 17, 18, 19.

De Juan Goude clearing the high hurdles during a boy's track meet.

Students checking in at Landerhaven for the Senior Prom getting ready to enjoy an evening full of enjoyment.
The Varsity Baseball Team had an excellent season and finished with an 18-10 record and 8-4 in the G.C.C. They tied for the conference championship in the G.C.C. and were also Sectional Champions. Jim Zdesar had an outstanding year, finishing with a batting average of .357. He also had 39 RBIs, and 10 home runs, tying the school record. Mike Yurcich and Jim Zdesar made First Team All G.C.C. Members of the team that made Second Team All G.C.C. were Tim Banach and Mike Hoffman.

Boy's Tennis
On March 17, 18 and 19 Fiddler On the Roof was presented as the annual Euclid High School Big Show. Dozens and dozens of students were involved in the production in ways ranging from musicians in the orchestra, dancers, actors and stage crew. The songs were enjoyable and the acting was excellent and an enjoyable time was had by all who attended.

FIDDLER ON BIG SHOW

Gilbert Taylor, the Fiddler, performs the opening melody.

The villagers, Fritz Streiff, Ben Carroll and Tilden Humphrey discussing the problems occurring in their country.

Daina Butkus, Maggie Dans, Dan Burko, Amy Hendrickson, Ben Carroll, Jodi Dominich, Marc Stanfill, Marie Salupo and Katie Baloni are members of Tevye's family and their guests and are preparing for the Sabbath meal.
Stephanie Di Blase, Carrie Howell, Katie Baiioni, Marie Salupa, Marc Stauffer, Daina Butkus, Jody Dominic, Amy Hendrickson and Chris Di Blase are at the wedding of Tzeitel and Motel.
April 29 and 30 were the dates for the annual Wai Napolo Swim Show entitled "Bodies of Water". Under this theme, the girls swam to songs that had to do with rain, tears, and oceans. All of the members put a tremendous amount of work into the production to make it one of the best shows yet.

The 1994 club was under the direction of Melissa Nagode, senior show director, and Jessica Adams, Junior show director. The adult supervisors were Anita Perrotti and Joan Bush.

-Melissa Nagode

Wai Napolo Made a Big Splash in Annual Swim Show

Chris Puglia, Mandy Siplock, Heather Mulhall, Marla Scott and Collette Sarns-Gaunt performing a routine before entering the water.

Meg Wolchko showing her form in the water.

Kristin Kish and Jessica Adams performing in their Duet number to the music, Reflections of Passion.
On May 10 a truly unique event occurred. An annular eclipse in which the moon passed in front of the sun occurred in Euclid. Since the moon was farther away from the earth it did not totally obscure the sun and an annular ring of the sun could be seen. Euclid was in a position for almost perfect viewing of the eclipse as can be seen from the picture where the moon is almost perfectly in the center of the sun.

On May 24, the annual Senior Awards Program was held in the Little Theater. Parents were able to see their children receive many awards. Here is Mr. Ken Ferlito presenting the National School Choral Award to senior Margana Dane.

Diane Tizanno presented the Louis Armstrong Jazz Award to Tony Hren and Ed Zovak presented the Euclid Teachers Association scholarship to Kimberly Bischof.

DeMarco Miller and Ray Miller observing the annular solar eclipse.

On April 21 Student Council sponsored its annual Senior Prom for Senior Citizens in which senior members of the community are invited to the school to participate in a dance and snack. Martin O'Neill and Kevin Granito enjoyed themselves by dancing with the guests and Euclid Mayor, David Lynch sang several songs.
Prom was held on Wednesday, June 1 at Landerhaven Country Club. It was an extravagant affair that was enjoyed by everyone. After arriving most couples had their pictures taken and were then served the traditional meal. After dinner the band played and the couples danced. After the Prom the students could go to Riverview Racquet Club for an evening of fun and games.

Prom gives seniors a chance to show off

Kristina Geiger and Matt Lemieux and Joe Bailey and Darlene Baird and Joe Bricie and Christina Fabert and Martay Wright and Pepe Pearson and Megan Von Benken all enjoying themselves at the prom.

On March 22, in preparation for Prom, there was a Fashion Show. Here are Dana Allen, Ken Hamilton, Tiffany Hicks, Ed Bankston, Trisha Chatman, Pepe Pearson, Chris King and Ed Rollins showing off their outfits.
On Sunday, June 5, 1994, a new tradition was begun at Euclid High School. Commencement was held in the stadium instead of at the Front Row Theater since the theater is no longer open. It was a perfect evening for the ceremony and everything went well. The graduates had a lot to remember as they began the rest of their lives.

Kurt Stanic, Superintendent of Euclid School, speaking at commencement.

Valedictorian, Nate Marron and Salutatorian, Paula Good spoke about their lives in the Euclid Schools and hopes for the future.

The American Flag was waving gently in the breeze during the ceremony.

The students began the program by assembling in the auditorium and then marching to the stadium.

Justin and Rachel Pierce

Two roads diverged in a yellow wood,
And sorry I could not travel both
And be one traveler, long I stood
And looked down one as far as I could...
Two roads diverged in a wood, and I-
I took the one less traveled by,
And that has made all the difference.
(From Robert Frost's "The Road Not Taken")
Dear Rachel and Justin,
We love you and pray that you will choose your roads wisely.
Mom and Dad

James J. Price

As a little girl you were such a blessing from God to us.
Your future looks bright, continue to be a blessing to all you meet.
We love you and are so proud of you.
Mom & Dad

Amy B. Repko

Timothy Rutti

We have watched you crawl, to walking and standing tall. Knowing you will face every challenge with courage and strength, tho' there may be times you may fall, we will always be there for you plus always be very proud of you.
Congratulations!
Love Always!!
Mom and Dad

Kenny Schuster

Little Kenny,
God truly blessed us with this little bundle of amazement, and you continue to amaze us to this day with all your strength, courage and charm.
We are so very proud of the fine young man that you are.
Remember, you'll always be our "Little Kenny" and we love you more than words can say!

Josten's Printing and Publishing Division at State College, Pennsylvania printed the 650 copies of the 1995 Euclidian. The book was printed on Gloss 191 paper stock and included 48 pages of full color. All pages were created using the Aldus PageMaker® 5.0 program running on a Macintosh IIci computer that had 17 megabytes of RAM, a 540 megabyte hard drive and a Daystar Powercache 50 meghertz accelerator card with math coprocessor installed. The pages were backed-up onto a 88 megabyte Syquest removable hard disk. A 21" black and white, two page monitor made page layouts much easier. A second Macintosh IIci computer with 5 megabytes of RAM and a Video Spigot card was networked to the first.

Both computers were running System 7.1. Digital images were imported either directly from a Sony Mavica MVC-A10 Still Video Camera into the Video Spigot or were scanned in from a photograph using a 600 dpi scanner. The images were processed using Adobe Photoshop® which had Kil's Power Tools® plug-ins installed. Graphics were produced using Aldus Freehands®, Type Styler® and Type Twister®. The index was made using the Josten's program, Last Name First®.

The pages were recorded on 3.5 inch floppy disks and hard copy was printed on a Hewlett Packard LaserJet III printer. The hardcopy and disks were sent to Josten's who stripped in the photos and produced the final copy on a Linotronic printer.

The cover was designed by the Josten's Art Department. Pages were submitted to the plant on five deadlines: November 2, November 23, December 23, January 27, and February 24. The pages were submitted as double page spreads. All the color pages had to be in the first deadline since their production entailed so much work. Since the final deadline was in late February, nothing that occurred after that time could be included in the book.

The staff of the 1995 Euclidian would like to extend thanks to all who helped to make this book possible. First and foremost, thanks have to go to the adviser, Mr. Von Benken for the many long hours of hard work and planning that had to be put in to get the entire operation going and to keep it going. Others to be thanked are: Lifetouch National School Studios Inc. for supplying film and processing for the many pictures that appeared in the book and for taking many of the team pictures, senior and underclass pictures. Josten's Yearbook Company for putting it all together in such an artistic manner, Jan Kehn for all the time she spent arranging photography dates and supplying needed materials, Barbara Springer for all the time and work she did trying to get the senior pictures arranged and taken, all the writers and photographers who contributed their time, and last but not least, the entire student body at Euclid High School without which this book could not exist.

Peter Young and Lt. Commander Scott Anderson of the Blue Angels spoke to and answered questions for the NJROTC students in the Little Theater. Anderson is the 3rd pilot in the Blue Angels and were in Cleveland for the Labor Day Air Show.

Many people helped in some way with the 1995 Euclidian. Some wrote stories while others worked on the laying out of the book while others helped in the mailing of letters. Sylvia Eler and Janceen Miklowski spent many hours working on material while Angela Miklavcic did much computer work. Others who did some work were Marianne Wilson, Allison FitzGerald, Janet Fonovic, Stacie Glavan, Beckie Glavan, Kim Schoval, Jewell Hagood, Kevin Carlson, Laura Fifolt, Amy Barber, Jamie Willett and Mr. Von Benken.

The 1994-95 school year is history. Many interesting and significant events occurred during that time and the Euclidian tried to cover as many of them as possible. This was difficult due to the limited staff. If we missed something, we are sorry. We sincerely apologize for any errors or omissions that occurred in the book but you have to understand this is only a high school publication and mistakes can happen.
